Next Up for New Racing Partnerships: Fasig-Tipton 2-year-old in Training Sale

With our latest racing partnership offering selling out in 1 day, we'll be shopping at the upcoming Fasig-Tipton Midlantic 2-year-olds in Training Sale on May 17-18. This sale is full of pedigree power and quality. There are several first-crop Divining Rod juveniles as well as some Moslers that we'll be looking at in addition to well-bred colts and fillies by Kentucky stallions.

Have some racing fun with us. Call or e-mail us today to reserve a spot on our list for whatever we purchase, as shares are likely to go fast:

C. FRIESAN FIRE - TOASTY
GRASSROOTS TRAINING AND SALES LLC

Midlantic
TWO-YEAR-OLD IN TRAINING

2-year-old MD-bred Friesan Fire colt from the family of undefeated G1-winner Army Mule.

Partnership Winner

Partnership filly Why Not Tonight pulled off a shocker at Pimlico on Black-Eyed Susan Stakes day 5/14. Sent off at odds of 25-1 in a turf maiden race, she was trying the grass for the first time after three starts on dirt. The Tapiture filly, bred in Maryland by Mr. & Mrs. Charles McGinnes, was purchased at the Fasig-Tipton 2019 Midlantic Yearling sale. Trained by Michael Trombetta, her previous best finish was a 3rd against colts in her debut at Colonial Downs in 2020 as a 2-year-old.

Breaking from post 14 in the big field of maidens, she stalked the front runners on the outside under Julian Pimentel. When asked for run on the turn she responded, sweeping up on the outside at the top of the stretch to engage the leader in a thrilling stretch drive. She got her head in front at the wire to the delight of her partners who were watching.

Why Not Tonight was broken at Merryland before spending the winter at Wes Carter's training center in South Carolina and then going to Mike Trombetta as a 2-year-old. Thanks to everyone who had a hand in getting her to the winner's circle.

Preakness Weekend Success

Country Life stallions had a great Preakness weekend, highlighted by Mosler's winners. It started on Thursday when the CLF/Sagamoon LLC-bred Irish Saga broke her maiden for M.O.M. Stable and trainer Tim Keefe. Then on Friday, his daughters Response Time (bred by Country Life out of Dominus Effect) and Miranda's Desmond (bred by Leo Holt's Angelinos Racing and foaled at Country Life) finished 1-2 in a loaded maiden race on the turf. Response Time had one previous start on the dirt at Pimlico where she was 2nd and Miranda's Desmond was making her racing debut. It's safe to say that both Mosler fillies liked the grass.

In addition, Super Ninety Nine's son Hemp finished 3rd in the G3 Chick Lang Stakes on the Preakness undercard on Saturday. The chestnut 3-year-old, bred and owned by Dave Baxter's Narrow Leaf Farm, has never been worse than 3rd in his 5 lifetime starts.
