FASIG-TIPTON EASTERN FALL YEARLING SALE Tuesday, October 27th

The staff at both Country Life and Merryland have been hard at work for the past two months sale-prepping yearlings for clients and our partnerships. We shipped 18 future stars to the Fasig-Tipton venue in Timonium for the October 27 sale.

Adding to the anticipation of the sale is Fasig's announcement of a $500,000 bonus for a graduate of this sale who goes on to win the 2028 Preakness Stakes. Fasig's commitment to the Mid-Atlantic region is evident in this lucrative enticement to purchase regional-bred yearlings at Timonium.

Preview the Country Life- and Merryland-prepped yearlings below (click each picture for catalog page). Several are already on our short-list as prospects for our racing partnerships.

Make sure to reach out to us to hold a 10% share in a yearling destined for the Country Life Racing Stable, pending your review of our selections.

BUYING AND SELLING at Kentucky's NOVEMBER SALES

We'll be prospecting for another mare like IN IT FOR THE GOLD, who we purchased for $75,000 at the 2023 Keeneland mixed sale. Her 3-year-old colt ENGLISHMAN is favored for this Saturday's Grade 1 Breeders' Cup Sprint.

The Country Life team of Josh and Mike Pons and General Manager Christy Holden will be in Lexington next week.

The action begins on Monday at the Fasig-Tipton November "Night of the Stars" sale. For a Country Life Breeding Partnership, we are offering IN IT FOR THE GOLD (dam of arguably the fastest racehorse in America in ENGLISHMAN), in foal to INTO MISCHIEF, as well as offering her handsome weanling colt by TIZ THE LAW. (Click here to watch Thoroughbred Daily News TV segment on how we came to buy the mare: "This Is Our Moment").

The following day begins the Keeneland November Breeding Stock Sale. We'll be shopping all week for new broodmares in foal to top Kentucky stallions to add to our partnerships. On Saturday, Nov. 7, we are selling our broodmare STARR OF QUALTIY, who we purchased in 2020 for $72,000, bred her to GUN RUNNER in 2021, and sold her resulting foal for $775,000 at the 2023 Saratoga Sale.

Starr of Quality is also the dam of multiple stakes winner FULMINEO (an earner of $364,000) who we also sold at Saratoga for $90,000.

Our other Keeneland offering is a handsome weanling colt out of partnership mare TRUANCY. Her colt is in the first crop of CHARGE IT, an exciting son of TAPIT standing at Gainesway Farm.

SUCCESSFUL STALLION SHOW

More than 100 breeders gathered at Country Life Farm on Sunday, Oct. 18, to greet old friends, make new ones, and more specifically, share the excitement surrounding Maryland's most promising stallion prospect in many years: the 3-year-old colt PROVENANCE.

A perfectly conformed son of 7-Time Leading Sire INTO MISCHIEF, PROVENANCE is a genetic work of art. He is the first foal out of two-time Breeders' Cup Distaff winner and two-time champion mare MONOMOY GIRL. PROVENANCE's breeder, Spendthrift Farm, purchased MONOMOY GIRL for $9.5-million and, as they say, bred the best to the best when they sent her to INTO MISCHIEF.

PROVENANCE has been a Spendthrift Farm-favorite ever since his birth in 2023. (Take a minute to click on TV footage of PROVENANCE as a foal at Spendthrift.)

He was such a highly regarded foal that Spendthrift bred MONOMOY GIRL back to INTO MISCHIEF, and his full sister, a 2-year-old of 2026 named EFFUSIVE, won on her debut at Saratoga this past August. MONOMOY GIRL has a Gun Runner colt weanling of 2026, and she is back in foal to GUN RUNNER for 2027.

Our Stallion Show also featured our established trio of Maryland's leading sires: FRIESAN FIRE (sire of 2026 Maryland Million Nursery winner FUTILE GESTURE); MOSLER (sire of $750,000-earner QUINT'S BREW), and DIVINING ROD (sire most recently of Belmont Park 2-year-old winner UNCLE GENE).

The encouraging spirit of everyone who attended our Stallion Show speaks to the optimism among regional horse owners that the Mid-Atlantic is soon to be "the place to be." A revived Colonial Downs, a brand-new Pimlico, a cooperative relationship between Virginia, Maryland, and Delaware, all point to a bright future.

For Kentucky's leading stallion farm, Spendthrift, to endorse the Mid-Atlantic region by standing their beautifully-bred young colt PROVENANCE in Maryland, in partnership with Country Life, for an incredibly common-sense fee of $2,000 Live Foal, tells us that the national horse industry is aware of the positive story unfolding.
